

BRIEFLETS.

—Chilly nights.
—The women are minding matters—for pes.
—Social doings promise to be plenty this winter.
—Cold chicken is found now on every out door roost.
—The new suction hose for Engine Company No. 2 has arrived.
—Apollo hall has been decorated in fine military style for the dance this evening.
—There was a large gathering at Prof. Severance's dancing school last evening.
—The report comes from Shopiere that a freight car there jumped the bridge and made a smash, but no one was hurt.
—There was a bloodless round of fist-cuffs last evening on Main street, which resulted in Thomas Baker charging Bill Monroe with assault.
—"My sole be on thy guard," would be an appropriate inscription to place on the wall to-night at the reception and dance of the Guards. Their soles are expected to trip merrily.

—There is a strong probability that Miss Francis Willard will lecture in this city next week, at the Congregational church. Friday evening will probably be the date fixed upon.
—There will be an exhibition of Miss Noon's class in reading and recitation at her school room over Vankirk's grocery, to-morrow evening at half-past seven. An interesting programme has been arranged.

—Charlie Penniman, the young portrait painter and crayonist, has gone to Chicago and entered Sander's studio. He is bound to make his mark with the pencil and brush, and we expect to hear glad tidings of his increasing prosperity.

—Rev. Mr. Sawin will deliver to-night his lecture on "An Old Prayer" at the Institution for the Blind. This lecture is a new one, and was delivered for the first time in Whitewater last Friday, and proved very acceptable to the audience.

—Near the Davis house is a piece of road covered with broken stone which is proving risky for horses. Scarcely a day passes without some steed getting his foot into it, so as to carry off a stone in his hoof, and much lameness will result if the stone is not covered with dirt.

—The County Board at its last meeting decided that when a constable got any one to assist him, the person so assisting must present his bill directly to the Board instead of having it included in the Constable's bill. The bills of several constables were therefore cut down by the Board, the items of expenses for assistants being cut out.

—Everybody wants to know where good clothing can be bought for little money. E. T. Foote answers the query in another column. By the way the goods are being carried away from his store, we should judge that a good many people had already answered the query to their satisfaction. Foote is selling goods close, and is selling lots of them.

—The Guards had a drill and business meeting last evening. As several militiamen from other places are expected to arrive and participate in the dance this evening, appearing in full uniform, a Committee of Reception was appointed to care for them. The committee consists of the commissioned officers, Captain Croft, and Lieutenants Smith and Newman, and Charles Glass and W. A. Hand. The visitors will be made welcome.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 33 degrees above and at two o'clock this afternoon at 41 above. Cloudy. One year ago to-day the thermometer at corresponding hours stood at 32 and 40 degrees above.

The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region and upper Mississippi valley, partly cloudy weather, rain rains, variable winds, falling followed by rising barometer, rising followed by falling temperature.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The libel suit of Whitford vs Goodrich still occupies the time of the Circuit Court and promises to use up most of next week. All the accounts of Milton College are being probed into, and the facts and figures are being tediously dragged out before the jury.

To-morrow is the holy day of the Seventh Day Baptists and nearly all of those interested in the case, except the Court and attorneys, are of the faith and order, hence they feel some reluctance in attending court on the Sabbath. In view of their peculiar religious belief the case will not be on the boards to-morrow, but will take a rest until Monday. It makes the court week rather short to have two Sabbaths in it, but under the circumstances, it is deemed advisable not to hurt the religious convictions of those most interested in the case.

HARD ON OLD OFFENDERS.

The revised statutes provide for heavy penalties for those guilty of a second offense against the law. The fact of a man having been convicted before for a crime gives the court extraordinary power to increase the punishment. If a person has been in the penitentiary once, and is convicted of another penitentiary offense, the court can send him up for a term not exceeding twenty-five years. Persons having committed offenses punishable by fine or imprisonment in jail can on a second conviction be sentenced to jail for a term not exceeding twenty-five years. This is evidently intended to prevent if possible any jail-bird from back-sliding and committing evil again, after he has professed reformation. Confirmed criminals and professional crooks will probably keep shy of the Badger State if the law is carried out rigorously. It makes no difference whether the accused has been convicted in any other State or in this State, or whether he has been pardoned out or not. It gives the Judge great power in any case.

FIRE AT CLINTON.

The cooper shop of Robert Hanningson, at Clinton, burned at 10:30 o'clock last night. The citizens turned out en masse and by heroic efforts saved quite a portion of his tools and stock, although in a damaged condition. By pulling down the west wing of the building and carrying out several cords of barrel staves, the fire was kept from communicating with Allen's warehouse, only four feet to the west of the shop. The wind blew from the west and there was much solicitude for the steam flouring mill of S. W. Searl & Co., but the roof was kept wet and the wind being moderate the sparks fell harmless on the damp shingles. Mr. Hanningson has an insurance of $1,000 on the building, $400 on his stock, while his loss will not probably exceed $300, but the interruption in business will be considerable. The origin of the fire is somewhat uncertain, as one of the workmen left the building only about an hour before it was discovered to be on fire.

WHO DREW THE PRIZE?

Some days ago a woman appeared in the city exhibiting an elegant wax cross, which she proposed to raffie off, as she needed the money for it. Several citizens responded to her appeal, and among them one of our leading business men, who out of the kindness of his heart not only invested himself, but several of his friends and employees did likewise. Two days before the drawing was to take place, the woman and her cross, and the proceeds of the sale of tickets, took the train together, and have not been seen since. Yesterday several of the duped ones who had heard of the sudden disappearance of the woman called upon the business man who was still ignorant that his confidence had been betrayed. One asked him if his ticket was No. 13? Certainly it was, and a smile of joyful anticipation widened out his countenance. They informed him that "No. 13" had drawn the prize, and the face widened still further with joy. "Twas true!" it was true, and his heart leaped. Others offered to buy the prize of him, but he said it was just the thing he wanted for Christmas. He eagerly called a boy and sent him up to the Davis house to get the wax work, and the crowd waited his return. The boy on reaching the hotel learned that the woman had skipped, and on his way back was met by one of the gang of conspirators, who induced him to carry a box back to the store. The box arrived and the crowd gathered about to set eyes again on the elegant wax work. The man who drew the prize slipped off the cover and beheld—the cover was slipped on again and the box kicked under the counter. The laugh was passed around, and the plot was revealed. The business man has now shut up his heart against the insidious advances of any attractive woman who is selling lottery tickets.

CAPTURE OF INGALLS.

The Madison Journal gives the following concerning the alleged burglar who went through Felt's tailor shop, and whose capture was chronicled in last evening's Gazette:

Last night, the City Marshal of Janesville came to town in quest of a burglar named Ingalls, who had committed depredations in that city some three months ago. Ingalls had fled Janesville at that time, but lately returned, and was recognized there; he again let out, and there was a supposition that he had come to Madison. The officer made known his errand to Police-man Dyke, who recognized the description as that of a hard looking citizen who came into town yesterday, and in about half an hour, he put the visitor in a way to lay his hand on the miscreant. The thief and his captor left for Janesville on a late train last night.

A Medicine Chest for 25 Cents.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a good cathartic. SWAYNE'S TAILOR AND SARTANILLA PILLS are prepared expressly to meet this necessity; being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllum or Mandrake, Fine Tree Tar, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, produce no griping, and are truly a valuable purgative agent, anti-bilious and cathartic medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, bilious, intermittent, remittent and congestive fevers, languor, drowsiness, aching pains in the back, head, slight chills, with flashes of heat, female irregularities, and for a bilious and coxive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual as DR. SWAYNE'S TAILOR AND SARTANILLA PILLS. If your druggist or storekeeper has not got them, or will not procure them for you, we will forward them by mail on receipt of price, (in currency or postage stamps), 25 cents a box, or five boxes for $1. Address letters, Dr. Swayne & Son, No. 330 North Sixth street, Philadelphia 17303edw1y-2

Liver's King.
The Liver is the Imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.
